

CLASSROOM - TO - OCEAN

As Big as Science, as Deep as the Ocean

Making the Connection. Barrow County schools are connected to Peachnet, the state-wide research and education network, providing high-speed connectivity to rich content from Universities and research institutes across the country and around the world.

Barrow County

PeachNet Network Infrastructure

Direct-to-Discovery: Combining K-12 education, science research and leading edge network technology provides a unique learning environment for Barrow's children.

Making the Connection. Creeks and rivers in Barrow County flow to the Altamaha river and out to the Atlantic to Gray's Reef and beyond. Our everyday lives have a direct impact on our Ocean.
